

Kia ora tatou, nga matua, nga kaitiaki me nga whanau o te kura,

Rakaukaka

RĀKAUKĀKĀ Na Sharlee Barbarich

I haere mātou ki Rākaukākā ki te tāutu i nga tipu whakaeke pērā i te pampas, te parakipere, te kiwikiwi, te wandering willie, te ivy me te old man's beard.

Kei te matemate haere te mauri o tēnei ngāhere na te tipuranga o ēnei momo tipu tūkino.

I kume mātou i te ivy e tāwhiwhi ana i ngā rākau i te ora tonu. He pouri ki te kite i ngā rākau māori kua mate. Ahakoa kei te tū tonu, kei te pirau.

Kei kōnei mātou ko Ariana Jones-Turipa me Kharma-Lee Morrell. Kei te ngaki otaota huri rauna i tēnei rākau māori pakupaku.

Te Whanau supports our Kaumatua!

Tena Koutou te whanau o te kura,

He mihi aroha ki a koutou mo te manaakitanga ki nga pakeke i tera wiki.

Papa Taha, it's always a pleasure when the staff and tamariki host the Kaumatua Programme. Tuesday 19 August was exceptional. The aroha you evoked and expanded on permeated the atmosphere and went out to the stratosphere. The kaumatua ate it, heard it, smelled it, breathed it, laughed it and sent it back again.

We've just debriefed and staff got lots of positive feedback about the kai, the singing, the care and loving and thoughtfulness that went into the whole day. You truly lifted the experience for everyone.

Ka nui te aroha ki a koutou katoa. He tino mihi ki nga tai tamariki – te hunga rangatira - exemplary ambassadors. Naku noa. Na Kay Robin.
