

YEAR 2011: Term 1 Wks 6/7.

Kia ora tatou, nga matua, nga kaitiaki me nga hoa o te kura,
There are some simple lessons to be learnt by the tragic earthquake that has struck to the heart and core of our nation. Think about what these could be for you and your family – is it about taking quality time with each other, or of counting your blessings, or of getting your Emergency Plan into action ...

Solemn Silence to pay our Respects for the Christchurch Tragedy and Loss of Life!

Our tamariki and staff members with some visitors to the school hearkened to the Nation's call to hold 2 minutes silence to honour those who have lost loved ones in the Christchurch earthquake. To Miss Te Iwa Johnston a Christchurch lass, who shared her experiences with us, about what happened to her and her school, when the earthquake struck, we say "Thank you!" Te Iwa rose easily and confidently to the challenge to speak in front of our kura. She spoke eloquently, clearly and with excellent projection, an excellent model for all of us. Koka Vivienne and Papa Robert Makara can be very proud of their niece.

Children do get a warning to stop any inappropriate behaviour. Each classroom teacher is NOW responsible to set the consequences and detentions for their own tamariki and will inform parents and the SENCO of regular occurrences or at-risk behaviours, so that tracking can occur, especially in the advent that Special Need support systems are required by other agencies.
